Indian constitution Day Celebration at SRPIT, Shirol , Kolhapur

On the occasion of 26th November, Constitution Day, our college celebrated this important day with great respect and enthusiasm. The programme was organized in the Central Library, where books related to the Indian Constitution were displayed along with photographs of Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar and the Preamble of the Constitution.

Faculty members and students gathered in the library and collectively read the Preamble of the Indian Constitution, reaffirming their commitment to the constitutional values of justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity.

During the programme, Mr. Kamble N. S. delivered an introductory speech highlighting the life and immense contribution of Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar to the nation. He emphasized Dr. Ambedkar's role as the chief architect of the Indian Constitution and his tireless efforts toward social justice, equality, and nation-building.

Mr. Kamble also explained some important articles of the Indian Constitution, creating awareness among students about their rights and duties as responsible citizens of India. The programme concluded with a message to uphold constitutional values in daily life.
